The Coddington Family.

THE NAME.

The name Coddington probably comes from Cotentin, a promontory of Normandy. It is found in various forms (Coddington, Codinton, Codyngton, Coddington, De Codyngton, etc.), in the English records as far back as 1200.

“The component parts of this name (Codrington) are all Saxon, viz., Cod, a wallet or husk of any grain; ring, a ring; and ton, a town; but from these with the help even of the most fanciful imagination we can collect nothing satisfactory respecting its etymology.”—Playfair's British Family Antiquity, vol. 6, p. 801.

ORIGIN OF THE FAMILY.

“From Philip, younger son of David de Malpas, descends the famous knightly family of the Egertons, who took the name from the place of their residence, as others of this family from Cotgrave, Overton, Coddington, Golborn, places where they lived.”—(Britannia, by Wm. Camden, enlarged by Richard Gough, vol. III, p. 41.)

One Line of the Descendants of John Coddington
Of Woodbridge, N. J.

The town of Woodbridge,¹ N. J., was settled 1666-7, chiefly by persons coming from Rhode Island and Massachusetts. The name "Woodbridge" was given to it in honor of the Rev. John Woodbridge, who was the pastor of some of the settlers when they lived at Newbury, Mass. Gov. Wm. Coddington² of Rhode Island was one of the original purchasers of Monmouth County, which at first included Woodbridge, but he did not come to New Jersey and it is not known that any of his children or grandchildren settled there, though there was probably some connection between his purchase and the fact that Coddingtons are found in the place at an early date. John Coddington was the first of the name of whom any mention is made in the records of the early settlers. He purchased land in Woodbridge in 1683 and in 1684 and 1691 of Jonathan Dennis and Wm. Bingley and became the ancestor of a large number of descendants. He was probably the son of John Coddington³ of Boston, Mass., who died there 18

Aug. (or June), 1655, leaving a wife, Emma _____, who was married 7 Mar., 1656, by Major Humph. Atherton to her second husband, John Jephson (or Jepson), and by him had a son John Jephson, who married Ruth Gardner. In the Boston records, the name is sometimes spelled Cuddington. John Coddington of Boston and Emma his wife had certainly two and perhaps three children, viz.,

1 Sarah, b. 4 Oct. (or Mar. 29), 1651; d. 9 Aug. (or 8 Sept.), 1656;

2 John, b. 9 Feb., 1654 (or 53). John married Hannah Gardner, daughter* of Richard Gardner, of Charlestown, Mass., (whose daughter Ruth Gardner, married John Jephson). He probably went to New Jersey and founded the family there.

(3) (?) Henry, b. before 1651, and living in Boston in 1670.

*—In "The Genealogies and Estates of Charlestown," we find that Richard Gardner's daughter Hannah married John Coddington. Richard m. Anna Blanchard (16) 18 (8) 1651; d. May 29, 1698 ae. a. 79; g. s. at Woburn. Will, March 15, 1697, pro. June 6, 1698, devised to Chr. Henry (b. Feb. 12, 1657-8), Hannah Coddington (wife of John), Hester Johnson, Abigail Thompson, Rebecca Whitmore, Mehitable Connett (wife of James), Ruth Jypson (Jepson) and their eldest child. All Woburn lands".

Richard Gardner, from Surrey, Eng., says tradition.

Settled first at Woburn, having his house nearly opposite to the mansion of the late Luke Reed, Esq., in Woburn West End, about 40 yds. from the road, where remains of a cellar and well were still discernible in 1857, but bet. 1661 and 1667 he removed into "Charlestown End," to the spot where the two maiden ladies, Miss Patience Gardner and her sister, had their habitation; and hence the births of his last 4 children are not recorded in Woburn Records but must be looked for in those of Charlestown.

M. Anna Blanchard, of Acton (Savage says of Charlestown, widow of Thomas, of Mystic or Malden side), 18 Oct., 1651, by whom he had:

John b. 11 Aug., 1652.

Anna b. 17 Jan. 1654-5 d. before her father

Benjamin, b. 26 Dec., 1656 d. before his father.

Henry, b. 12 Feb., 1657-8 (His record given here).

Esther, b. 15 Oct., 1659; m. Wm., eldest son of Major Wm.

Johnson and Esther his wife; d. 17 Dec., 1706, age 48.

Ruth, b. 1 Apr., 1661; m. John Gypson (Gibson) (or Jepson).

Hannah, b. _____, m. John Coddington.

Abigail, b. _____, m. James Thompson.

Rebecca, b. _____, m. Samuel Whittemore, of Cambridge,
13 Feb., 1686.

Mehitabel, m. John Connett.

See, also, Sewall's History of Woburn. Richard Gardner was buried in old Burying Ground, Park St., Woburn Centre. Epitaph:

Memento Mori. Fugit Hora.

Here lyes ye body of Richard Gardner aged about 79 years. Died May 29, 1698.

STOCKDALE CODDINGTON¹, of Roxbury, Mass., who removed and died about 1650, and whose wife Hannah..... died in Roxbury, in 1644, in advanced age (and was buried 20 May), may have been the father or grandfather of the first John Coddington, of Boston. Nothing more is known of him.

JOHN CODDINGTON², of Woodbridge, N. J., probably son of John, of Boston; b. (prob.) 1654; m. (1st), Annah (or Hannah)(perhaps Gardner)³, who d. 20 Sept., 1690; m. (2d), 1 May, 1691, Mary White, (who (prob.) joined Presbyterian Church at Woodbridge in 1707—or 8 (or 3 Oct. 1710.). He was constable at Woodbridge in 1692. Bought land in Woodbridge of Jonathan Dennes in 1683–4–91. His will cannot be found in the Records. His children were probably as follows, though he, perhaps, had others whose names are not known:

1. John, b. 8 Nov., 1677, married Elizabeth .
2. Benjamin, b. 8 Oct., 1680, married Mary
3. Hannah, b. 27 May, 1683.
4. Sarah, b. 28 March, 1687.
5. Joseph, b. 22 March, 1689.

Nothing further is known of Hannah, Sarah and Joseph. The wills of John and Benjamin can be seen at the Secretary of State's office at Trenton, N. J.

In the History of Westchester County, N. Y., by J. T. Scharf, pub. Philadelphia, Pa., 1886-2 Vols. by L.E. Preston & Co., is found following: Vol II. p. 333:*

"Some years previous to the purchase of the Washington Company's new engine an engine Company composed of Dr. Benjamin Brandreth, William Coddington, and a number of the more wealthy citizens of the place had been formed but it soon passed out of existence. Officially the Company was known as No. 1, but their common designation was "The Silk Stockings" from the belief that they had organized chiefly to secure the exemptions from various public duties which were granted to firemen. The silk stocking engine house was located on Spring St., almost opposite the Methodist church and adjoining the grounds of the Mt. Pleasant Academy."—(Reference to Village of Sing Sing.)
